Indian Stream Health Center announces new members of primary care team

Colebrook, NH: (November 20, 2020)) Indian Stream Health Center (Indian Stream) is pleased to announce two new additions to its clinical team. They are Katrina Colby, MSN, APRN, FNP-BC and Elizabeth DeNauw, PA-C.

“We’re very excited to welcome Katrina and Elizabeth to our practice,” said Gregory Culley, MD, Acting Chief Executive Officer at Indian Stream.

“These are skilled and talented providers who each bring a great set of skills to our team.” Dr. Culley said that physician assistants and advanced practice registered nurses work in close partnership with physicians and other staff to provide a wide range of high-quality medical services and care for patients of the practice.

Ms. Colby comes to Indian Stream with a wealth of clinical experience included several years as a registered nurse at Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center in Lebanon. She recently completed the Nurse Practitioner Program at Rivier University in Nashua. She holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing from Franklin Pierce University in Rindge and an Associate's Degree in Nursing from White Mountains Community College in Berlin.

Ms. DeNauw joins Indian Stream from Concord Hospital Medical Group in Concord, where she served as a Physician Assistant in a large family medicine practice. She received her Physician Assistant Certification from Northeastern University in Boston, MA, a Bachelor of Science Degree from the University of New Hampshire in Durham and an Associate's Degree in Medical Laboratory Science from the University of Vermont in Burlington, VT. She is certified by the National Commission on Certification of Physician Assistants.

Dr. Culley added that the new providers are seeing patients at the clinic this month. To learn more, please call (603) 237-8336.
